

BRE students awarded for their dissertations

Student Project Competition 2010, Safety Specialist Committee, HKIE 香港工程師學會 安全工程專責事務委員會「學生項目比賽 2010」

Two 2010 graduates from the Department of Building and Real Estate (BRE), Mr Chiu Wing Cheong Gerald (招永昌) and Mr Chung Chi Wa Vincent (鍾志華), won the respective Champion Award under the categories of MSc Degree Programme and Full-time Undergraduate Degree Programme of the “Student Project Competition 2010” organized by the Safety Specialist Committee (SSC) of the Hong Kong Institution of Engineers (HKIE). Both Mr Gerald Chiu and Mr Vincent Chung were presented with a commemorative certificate and a cash prize of HK$2,000 by Ir Joseph W.J Chi (戚務堅工程師), Chairman of SSC of HKIE, at the HKIE-SSC Annual Dinner 2010-2011 held on 22 January 2011 at the YMCA Hotel. Both of the two awardees were supervised by Dr Daniel W.M. Chan (陳煒明博士), Associate Professor of the BRE Department.

The winning dissertation report of Mr Gerald Chiu, who is a part-time graduate of MSc in Construction and Real Estate programme in 2010, was entitled “Developing a Decision Support System (DSS) for Measuring the Safety Performance of Construction Projects Undertaken by Small to Medium-sized Construction Companies in Hong Kong”. The dissertation report of Mr Vincent Chung, being a full-time graduate of BSc(Hons) in Surveying programme, was named as “Evaluation of the Effectiveness of Safety Management System (SMS) in Repair, Maintenance, Addition and Alteration (RMAA) Works in Hong Kong”.

Certificate awarded to the champion awardee (MSc degree programme) Mr Gerald Chiu

Champion awardee (full-time undergraduate degree programme) Mr Vincent Chung (right) and his dissertation supervisor, Dr Daniel Chan (left)

OSH Best Project Award 2010, Occupational Safety and Health Council 職業安全健康局「職安健最佳項目 2010」

The dissertation reports of two 2010 graduates from the Department of Building and Real Estate (BRE), Mr Ko Shun Wei Chris (高舜尉) and Mr Chung Chi Wa Vincent (鍾志華), were adjudicated as the Merit Award under the respective categories of Postgraduate Degree Programme and Undergraduate Degree Programme of the “Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) Best Project Award 2010” organized by the Occupational Safety and Health Council (OSHC). The Award aimed at encouraging post-secondary students in Hong Kong to appreciate the importance of occupational safety and health in their studies. The OSHC offers a maximum of ten awards annually, based on the relevance, quality and originality of the submissions. The two graduates received a Certificate of Merit and a cash prize of HK$1,000 during the Occupational Health Forum and Award Presentation Ceremony 2010-2011 launched on 22 February 2011 at the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre (New Wing).

The winning dissertation report of Mr Chris Ko, being a part-time graduate of MSc in Construction and Real Estate programme in 2010, was entitled “An Empirical Study of the Pay for Safety Scheme (PFSS) for New Public Housing Projects in Hong Kong”. The dissertation report of Mr Vincent Chung, who is a full-time graduate of BSc(Hons) in Surveying programme, was named as “Evaluation of the Effectiveness of Safety Management System (SMS) in Repair, Maintenance, Addition and Alteration (RMAA) Works in Hong Kong”. The two winners were supervised by Dr Daniel W.M. Chan (陳煒明博士), Associate Professor of the BRE Department.

Merit winner (postgraduate degree programme) Mr Chris Ko (left) and his dissertation supervisor, Dr Daniel Chan (right)

Merit winner (undergraduate degree programme) Mr Vincent Chung (left) and his dissertation supervisor, Dr Daniel Chan (right)