This course aims to further enhance the written and spoken English communication skills that students will need to function effectively in their university studies. The main emphasis is on improving students’ confidence and competence in writing essays and participating in discussions.

The study method is primarily seminar-based. Seminar activities will include discussions, role-plays and individual and group activities. Use will be made of information technology where appropriate. Learning and teaching materials developed by the English Language Centre will be used throughout this course. Teachers will recommend additional reference materials as required.

Assessment
Continuous Assessment 100%

Learning Outcomes
At the end of the course, students are expected to be able to use the language and study skills needed to:

- participate effectively in formal and informal discussions
- organise and compose descriptive writing
- plan and write argumentative essays

Syllabus
This syllabus is indicative. The balance of the components, and the weighting accorded to each, will be based on the specific needs of the students.

1. Spoken communication

Enhancing and practising the specific oral and aural skills required to participate effectively in formal interactions involving such activities as discussions and debates, as well as in a variety of informal contexts.
2. Written communication

Writing descriptive texts; understanding common organisational patterns of argumentative essays; improving coherence and cohesion in writing; reinforcing revision and proofreading skills; achieving appropriate tone and style in writing.

3. Reading and listening

Understanding the content and structure of information delivered both orally and in print form; reading and listening for different purposes.

4. Language development

Developing relevant grammar, vocabulary and pronunciation skills.

Reference books

