

“Focus Group Study on Long Term Housing Strategy”
on the list of “Outstanding Professional Services Awards 2013”

For the team, Prof. Francis Wong (Left: the first one) received the award from Prof. Alex Wai, Vice President (Research) of PolyU (Left: the second one) and the appreciative applause from guests at the Presentation Ceremony on 14 February 2014.

“Long-term housing strategy” has become one of the hottest subjects in the society. The research team comprising three departments, Department of Applied Social Sciences (APSS), Department of Building and Real Estate (BRE) and Public Policy Research Institute (PPRI), conducted a focus group study on this topic in 2013. Their great endeavor got ‘the Multi-departmental Project Award with the Highest Contract Value’ in the Outstanding Professional Services Awards 2013.

For the team, Prof. Francis Wong (BRE) received the award from Prof. Alex Wai, Vice President (Research) of PolyU and the appreciative applause from guests at the Presentation Ceremony on 14 February 2014. His remarkable leadership was important to this success.

“Focus Group Study on Long Term Housing Strategy”
on the list of “Outstanding Professional Services Awards 2013”

Prof. Albert Chan, Interim Dean of Faculty of Construction and Environment (Right : the first one), gave the team his warmest congratulations at the Presentation Ceremony.

Prof. Albert Chan, Interim Dean of Faculty of Construction and Environment (FCE), gave the team his warmest congratulations at the Presentation Ceremony. His words of encouragement and this achievement gave the team every confidence to take on new challenges in the future.

Congratulations to all participating team members!