BRE Student Winning
CIOB(HK) Outstanding Student Awards
(2014-15) under Bachelor Degree Category

In the Outstanding Student Awards (2014-15) organized by the Chartered Institute of Building (Hong Kong), one alumni of the Department of Building and Real Estate (BRE) of PolyU was rewarded for his final year dissertation announced on 30 July 2015. Under the bachelor degree category, Mr Ho Man Lai, Alfred (何文禮) was the prize winner from PolyU with his empirical study of identifying and analyzing the critical success factors for implementing Building Information Modelling (BIM) in Hong Kong. He was a full-time surveying degree graduate in June 2015 with Upper Second Class Honours whose dissertation was supervised by Dr Daniel W.M. Chan, Associate Professor of BRE. Alfred has been working for Gammon Construction Ltd as an Assistant Quantity Surveyor (AQS) since July 2015.

The primary goals of these awards are to promote excellence in project management in construction and to recognize students with outstanding academic achievements. The awards were based on the quality of student’s own work for final year project/dissertation completed in the academic year 2014-15, the contents of which should be focused on the pertinent aspects of construction project management. The winner received an award certificate and a prize cheque of HK$4,000 at the CIOB(HK) Annual Dinner 2015 held on Friday, 11 September 2015 at the New World Millennium Hong Kong Hotel, Tsim Sha Tsui East, Kowloon.

Dear Prof Chan,

Invitation of Nomination for
CIOB(HK) Outstanding Student Awards 2014/2015

The Chartered Institute of Building (Hong Kong) is pleased to announce the CIOB(HK) Outstanding Student Awards 2014/15 is now open for application by your University/Institute. The primary goals of these awards are to promote excellence in Project Management in construction and to recognize students with outstanding academic achievement.

The nominated students may be invited to attend an interview convened by CIOB(HK) to present their papers. The names of winners will be published on the CIOB(HK) website and the CIOB(HK) journal. The nominated students shall agree to present their papers at a technical seminar for the Awards if so requested, and part of their dissertations/final year projects may also be published in CIOB(HK)'s journal upon announcement of the winners.

Please send the completed Nomination Form together with the dissertations/final year projects in both hard and soft copies with the reasoning for nomination to CIOB (Hong Kong) Office by post by 15 June 2015.

Should you have any query regarding the captioned, please feel free to contact Ms Ivy Lo at 2529 2785.

Thank you for your continuous support to CIOB (HK).

Yours faithfully,

Mok Peng Lam
President, The Chartered Institute of Building (Hong Kong)
